

FROM TROY TO BAGHDAD:
Dialogues on War & Homecoming

Do you often recall the brotherhood and camaraderie of war service?
Has the road to “homecoming” been harder and longer than you expected?
Would you like to connect with other veterans in a deeper, more meaningful way?

Facilitated by:

Ann-Maria Contarino

English Instructor and Academic Counselor, Saint Anselm College

Mark Gilbertson

Licensed Clinical Psychologist, Manchester VA Medical Center

This program is free and open to all veterans
(pre-registration required).

Register at [www.nhhumanities.org/
veterans](http://www.nhhumanities.org/veterans).

A 10-week book discussion group for veterans

The ancient tale of Odysseus' epic 10-year journey home from the Trojan War has much to tell us about the challenges of homecoming for today's veterans. The Odyssey reveals timeless and universal truths about trauma, duty and honor, personal sacrifice, life at home, and readjustment. Veterans are invited to attend this 10-week reading and discussion group co-led by a clinician and a literature teacher. Free copies of the book will be provided at the first session. Limited seating; please RSVP.

Cathedral of the Pines, 10 Hale Hill Road, Rindge Tuesdays, August 21 - October 23, 2018 • 6:00 - 7:30 pm

The program uses a model developed by Professor Roberta Stewart of Dartmouth College.

Register at www.nhhumanities.org/veterans. For more information, call
New Hampshire Humanities at 603-224-4071, or contact Patricia at patricia@cathedralofthepines.org or 603-899-3300.

Sponsored by:

